

The Familienbüro of the district Euskirchen advises and offers information on the following topics:

- Pregnant - and so many questions!
- Where can I meet other mothers / fathers?
- How can a multilingual upbringing work best?
- I'm worried about my child, whom can I talk to?
- How can I find day care for my child?
- What kind of financial aid am I entitled to? Where do I have to apply?
- Separated – what's next?

You can phone the Familienbüro or visit in person to inform yourself about the various offerings available throughout the district of Euskirchen.

Upon request a translator * could be arranged.

Of course, your concerns are treated with confidentiality and the offer is free.
